

BUSINESS TO BUSINESS

HIRING PRACTICES THAT MAXIMIZE BUSINESS PERFORMANCE

Tuesday, March 24th | 7am - 9am

Ciociaro Club, Salon E | 3745 N Talbot Rd, Oldcastle, ON N0R 1L0

COST: $20

Hear directly from local employers who are championing workplace inclusion and discovering why hiring someone with a disability makes business sense.

Master of Ceremonies: Arms Bumanlag

Most know Arms from his extensive career in television and radio. He has recently joined the Senior Leadership Team at the Erie Shores Healthcare (ESHC) as the organization's Director of Communications & Public Relations.

Keynote Speaker: Lino Tesolin

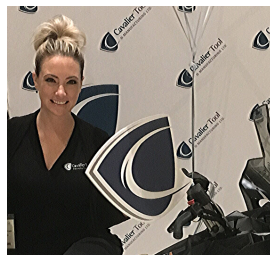

Lino has been a champion for hiring employees with disabilities for more than 30 years. He was recently inducted into the Ontario Disability Employment Network's Business Champions League for his progressive hiring practices.

Panel of Local Employers

Bruce Montone

Fire Chief | Amherstburg Fire
Department

Jena Reid

Human Resources Manager | Cavalier
Tool & Manufacturing LTD

David Burman

President | Mr. Maid

Please RSVP by March 17th at bit.ly/b2b-rsvp

SCAN WITH YOUR PHONE TO RSVP!

This event is hosted and brought to you through the partnership of Workforce WindsorEssex, the Windsor Essex Employment Group (WEEG) and the Ontario Disability Employment Network (ODEN).